DETAILS:

It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to a policyholder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policyholder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance within the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

I certify that I have read the above completed health statement or that it has been read to me. I understand that any false statement or representation in the application and/or health statement may result in loss of coverage under the policy/certificate. I agree that the answers given above will become a part of the original application, including any supplement to the application. So far as I know and believe, the original application, as changed above, is true, complete and up-to-date.
